

Lititz Record Express

February 4, 2010, A12

Brethren Village announces new appointments

Brethren Village Retirement Community has recently announced the appointment of Deborah Fillmore to the position of supportive living sales director and David Goodnow to the position of executive chef.

Fillmore will have direct administrative responsibility of admissions to the skilled nursing and assisted living facilities of the facility including Terrace Crossing, Village Manor and The Courtyards.

Fillmore joined the Village community in 2005 as admissions associate. A graduate of State University of New York, Fillmore has a bachelor's of science in human services management. She resides in Denver, with her husband.

Goodnow will be responsible in providing leadership and supervision for the food production team and joined the village on Jan. 14. Most recently, he was employed as dining general manager by Asbury Solomons Retirement Community in Solomons, Md. A graduate of the Florida Culinary Institute, Goodnow has an associate's in applied science - culinary arts. He resides in York.