Is Home Care right for you?

Brethren Village Home Care serves both our current Residents and those who live in the local Lancaster County community. Home Care has no elder-age restrictions. If your loved one needs assistance in one of the following areas, now is a good time to consider Home Care:

- Rehabilitation following a recent hospital stay, surgery, fall or accident
- Personal care services for daily living activities
- Maintaining independence, but requiring some assistance with various tasks
- Assistance for the temporarily or permanently incapacitated
- Help for the chronically or terminally ill

How we can help

Our Home Care staff is specially trained and, above all, friendly. They're available to help, as little or as much as your loved one needs. Services include:

- Daily chores like light housekeeping, cooking, laundry and more
- Companionship and reading
- Assistance caring for pets
- Medication monitoring
- Exercise assistance
- Driving and accompaniment to doctor appointments, errands, etc.
- Assistance with personal care activities like bathing and dressing
- Transition home and/or rehab help after a hospital stay

We offer services designed for your specific needs.

Respite Care: short-term solutions

In addition to our standard Home Care services, Brethren Village also offers short-term respite care so you can do the things you need to do. Whether you need to leave for a few hours or a few days, we offer reliable help when you can't be there yourself.

Reliable help when you can't be there yourself.

- Care for your loved one if you need to be out of town, even on short notice
- Assistance for seniors at important events like weddings or graduations
- Help for a few hours, or a few days
- Last minute help, or reoccurring appointments
- Transportation services

Respite care is available, often even on short notice, to those who have met with our Home Care staff for a free, in-home assessment. Once your loved one's needs have been determined, we can provide respite care on an as-needed basis.

Brethren Village Home Care

Let us take care of it

There's just no place like home. That's why we offer a variety of services so that your loved one can get exactly the help that she needs. There are no cookie-cutter formulas here—we work with you to determine the right fit so your loved one can remain happily at home.

If you're ready to consider Home Care, we'll start with a free, in-home assessment conducted by one of our professional nurses.

We work with you to determine the right fit.

We then work with you, your loved one and her doctors to determine the care plan that works best for everyone.
