The End of an Era!

At the beginning of 2021, the managers of both the Fieldcrest and Village Center grocery stores are retiring from active duty. Ken Bealer, has served as the manager of the Fieldcrest Store since it opened in 2007, and Joan Miley has served as manager of the Village Store since 2005.

Their stories are linked through Ken's parents, Laverne and Harold, who served as the managers of the Village Store during the 25 years they lived at Brethren Village. While the stores operate independently from each other, they share a common thread of being managed and operated by volunteers, and until 2019, both made regular contributions from their proceeds to the Brethren Village Auxiliary.

Today both shops provide a critical service to the Brethren Village Community, and are open six days a week. Along with the Gift shop and Thrift shop, the grocery stores now contribute directly to Brethren Village and the proceeds are used for benevolent care. We are grateful for all of the volunteers, and salute these two dedicated leaders.

Ken Bealer

"When I started in 2007, they handed me the keys and said here you go" Ken notes about his early years with the Fieldcrest Store. He continues "I got my marching orders from my parents, starting with the inventory that they had in the Village Store and tailoring it to our customers." Today the store routinely involves up to 25 volunteers, from clerks to volunteers who help order and manage the inventory. Prior to COVID-19, Ken shopped at SKH six days a week, and managed much of the inventory in the store.

Ken Bealer, BV Resident, holding a picture of his parents, Laverne & Harold.

Ken is a humble and well-respected leader. He is most proud of the success of the store serving Residents of Fieldcrest and the north campus who are not able to access the Village Center store.

Joan Miley

Joan is tireless and resourceful in tracking down the best bargains for the Village Center Store. Prior to COVID-19, she spent time each Sunday clipping coupons, and then shopped throughout the week at large grocery stores, pharmacies, department stores and local stores and roadside produce stands. She notes this really pays off when people stop by and say "I knew that you would have this in the shop!"

When she started as manager the store already had a well-established inventory, but over the years Joan has honed it to guarantee that availability of a large amount of items at competitive prices. She prizes accessibility, especially for Residents who are no longer able to shop out in the community. Offering an inventory that is like a grocery store provides variety and gives her customers a reason to keep coming back.

Joan's well-trained group of 25 volunteers ensure that this important resource will thrive even as she retires from active management.

Joan Miley, BV Resident, helping ensure Residents have a good supply of milk in the Village Center store.

THANK YOU!

Cookie Sale

In a year of many changes, Brethren Village Residents were grateful for one holiday staple – the annual cookie sale. The former Brethren Village Auxiliary ran this event each year, coordinating volunteer bakers from the local Church of the Brethren congregations.

This year cookies were donated by members of the churches as well as Brethren Village Residents and Team Members. Cookies were sold by Fieldcrest and Village Center store volunteers and proceeds of just over $900 were donated to benevolent care.

A special thanks to Gerrie Hurst from Hempfield Church of the Brethren. Gerrie was an Auxiliary representative and this year again secured donated sand tarts from S. Clyde Weaver Company. "This event is important to Brethren Village Residents and the Volunteers," Gerrie shared, "I'm so glad that Brethren Village could find a safe way to hold the cookie sale again this year."

Thank you to all who participated, and to the vision of the members of the former Auxiliary who started and ran the event for many years.

What our donors are saying:

I support Brethren Village because of the genuine love and expert care given to each and every Resident by Team Members. We love you!! Thank you!! May the Lord Bless!

– Debbie Davis

Many ways to give to Brethren Village!

Did you know that there are a variety of creative ways to support Brethren Village? Here are a few suggestions:

- Check if your employer has a matching gift program and have your gift matched;
- Use a charitable donor advised fund where you can make one gift and have it distributed to various organizations. The Brethren Foundation and Everence both provide these funds. Special thanks to a generous anonymous donor who has used the Brethren Foundation to channel gifts to the Good Samaritan Fund;
- If you are a Thrivent member, you can direct your Choice Dollars to Brethren Village;
- Donate stock or mutual funds. You can directly donate stock or mutual funds and Brethren Village sells the funds. You receive a charitable deduction and skip the capital gains tax.

For more information on these creative ways to give, or others, please contact Renny Magill, CFRE Vice President of Development.
