CONSTRUCTION BEGINS

Donors, Residents, Brethren Village construction partners and officials gathered June 20 to officially kick off construction on the Fieldcrest renovations that are starting thanks to donations to the Gathering for Generations capital campaign.

At the event John Snader, President and CEO, praised donors who have already committed $5.1 million toward the $6.1 million goal, and construction partners at Clark Food Service, Derck & Edson, Moore Engineering and Wohlsen Construction for their diligence in navigating the challenges of COVID-19 the past two years to bring the project to start on budget. Jeff Sturla, Vice President of Business Development at Wohlsen Construction, the general contractor on this project, and the builder that built and expanded Fieldcrest, expressed appreciation for the opportunity to again partner with Brethren Village on a project which will benefit today – and tomorrow's – Resident.

PARTNER PROFILE

Covenant Home Health & Home Care

Brethren Village is pleased to partner with Covenant Home Health & Home Care. The strategic partnership with Covenant to provide these two lines of care began in 2019 and has allowed Brethren Village to offer a great array of services for Residents to live independently.

Since 1995, Covenant Home Health & Home Care has remained focused on delivering high quality services in clients' homes. Covenant's mission runs deeper than its line of services, it is committed to meet their patient's needs, clinically, socially, spiritually, and helps each person develop a care plan to Age-In-Place. Collaborating with each patient's physician, Covenant Home Health (Skilled Care) provides skilled nursing, wound care, physical, occupational, and speech therapies billed to Medicare and other various insurances. These services also can be used when returning from the hospital or a skilled nursing community and are flexible to be set up whenever there is a clinical change or concern.

Covenant Home Care (Non-Skilled) supports Residents with companion care and activities of daily living from one hour per day up to 24 hours per day. Covenant Home Care charges Residents directly for these services, which are often covered by long-term care insurance policies. Supporting both services is Covenant's wellness program. This consists of a triage phone line and daily clinic hours to help answer routine and complex clinical questions to help arrange both Covenant Home Health & Home Care as needed. Covenant has an on-campus wellness nurse, Dan Weaver, who has become a fabric of the community and is available to help support Residents as they age-in-place in their homes.

More information about Covenant is available at <https://chhomecare.com>. They can also be reached on the triage phone line: 717-581-4294.

BV SUMMER CAMP

What's more fun than summer camp? Residents enjoyed the second annual Brethren Village Summer Camp in June. In addition to the elements that everyone loves about summer camp – camp food, singing, games, swimming – attendees had an opportunity to think about who is their neighbor through daily inspirational meditations. And, they had a chance to put into action caring about their neighbor through service trips to Lancaster Food Hub, COBYs and Mennonite Central Committee.

Campers had a chance to try their hand at a variety of crafts including flower string art, making a painted succulent flower pot and decorating cup cakes.

Residents packed care bags for people being served by the North Star Initiative and House of His Creation. They also wrote notes to women in these programs.

Campers played games such as disc golf, cornhole and board games.

"My wife, Marie, and I were among the large group of avid participants who were motivated by what we learned from each day's speakers about our global and local neighbors' needs. We had an opportunity in the afternoons to walk the talk, by packing health and baby kits in Wolfe and going to assist offsite community service non-profits that serve our neighbors around the corner and around the world. One particularly inspiring moments came during the evening campfire talk when we heard Rabbi Paskoff speak about the ancient Jewish practice of service, which reminded me of the Nike shoe slogan: Just do it!"
